

NESTLER

One hHealth SusTainability partnership between EU-AFRICA for food sEcuRity

NESTLER is a joint project between the EU and African member states designed to promote One-Health sustainable partnership.

-  Greater biodiversity in the ecosystem and sustainability of natural resources
-  Reduce disease outbreaks in humans and animals
-  Reduce socioeconomic inequalities
-  Improve food security
-  Improve global health security

Animal health

- Promote improved farming practices
- Regulate use of wildlife
- Regulate antimicrobial use and prescription
- Regulate food supply chains and processing
- Expand research into emerging diseases

Human health

- Manage urbanization
- Reduce human conflict
- Regulate antimicrobial use and prescription
- Address socioeconomic inequalities
- Expand research into emerging diseases

Environmental health

- Reduce deforestation and promote conservation
- Limit environmental pollution
- Improve housing
- Improve waste management
- Expand research into climate change

Consortium Partners:

The NESTLER project is funded by the European Union under Grant Agreement No. 101060762. This publication reflects the views only of the author, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.